

COSTUME GUIDELINES

Excited about wearing your costume to the Cultural Arts Showcase? While we encourage creativity, we also value safety and good judgment. If you're planning to attend the Cultural Arts Showcase, take a moment to read over our costume rules and regulations:

GENERAL

- Cultural Arts Showcase, Brevard Symphony Orchestra and the King Center for the Performing Arts reserve the right to deny admission to or remove any person wearing attire that is considered inappropriate or attire that could detract from the experience of other Patrons.
 - Clothing with objectionable material, including obscene language or graphics
 - Excessively torn clothing
 - Clothing which, by nature, exposes excessive portions of the skin that may be viewed as inappropriate for a family environment
 - Clothing with multiple layers are subject to search upon entry
 - Objectionable tattoos
- Costumes must be family-friendly and may not be obstructive, offensive, objectionable or violent.
- Costumes may not contain any weapons that resemble or could easily be mistaken for an actual weapon.
- Costumes may not contain sharp objects, pointed objects or materials that may accidentally strike another Patron.
- Patrons who do not adhere to these guidelines may be refused entry into, and/or removed from, unless his or her costume can be modified to meet the above standards.

PATRONS AGES 13 AND UNDER

- Costumes and some masks may be worn, as long as the mask does not cover the entire face and eyes are visible.

PATRONS AGES 14 AND OLDER

- Layered costumes or costume props that surround the entire body are strongly discouraged and may be subject to additional security screening.
- Costumes may not reach or drag on the ground. (e.g., full-length Princess dresses)
- Masks or face coverings of any kind may not be worn unless you are verified member of a participating cosplay group that has been invited to participate at the Cultural Arts Showcase.
